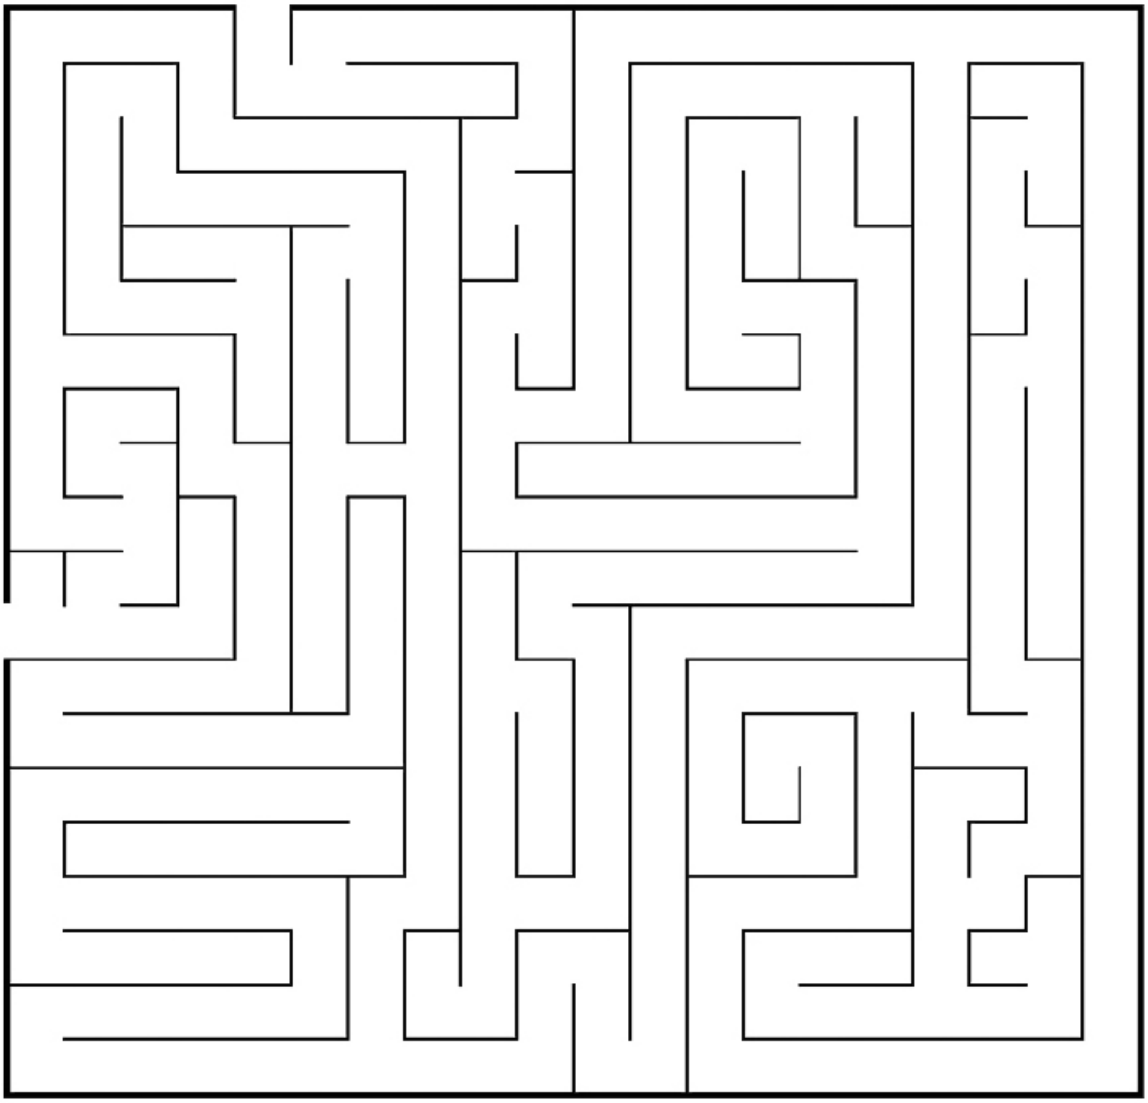
April 15th is the last official day taxpayers can send their Federal tax returns to the Internal Revenue Service. Can you help the tax return (in the envelope) get to the IRS by putting it in the mailbox? Use the pencil tool to draw a line through the maze. If you have trouble completing the maze, click on the button at the bottom of the page to reveal the answer.

Click here to start drawing



Click here for the answer