Building Relationships

Partnering Opportunities with the New IRS

Organizations all over the country are partnering with the IRS to assist individuals and families. Through these partnerships, organizations are also achieving their own goals.

These mutually-beneficial partnerships are strengthening outreach efforts and bringing education and assistance to millions.

What the IRS can offer you:

- Successful local and national partnership models
- Access to national partnership networks
- Experience building coalitions
- Customized education
- Technical tax expertise
- Partner-to-partner support network

What's in it for you?

Access to information and help that your customers, employees and members need... want... and value!

You can...

- Help bring resources and dollars into your community
- Strengthen community relationships
- Develop your workforce with valuable skills
- Meet your organization's community service goals or requirements

What's in it for your customers, employees and members?

- Education & Outreach
  - Financial education programs
  - New tax law education
  - Information for students, retirees, working families and individuals with disabilities
- Income Tax Assistance
  - Free tax return preparation at community sites
  - Free tax forms
  - Answers to tax questions
- Electronic Filing (e-file)
  - Free e-file at tax return preparation sites

If you're interested in partnering with the IRS, email us at partner@irs.gov.

Current partners include:

- Volunteer Organizations
- Community Organizations
- Educational Institutions
- Non-Profit Organizations
- Financial Institutions
- Government Entities
- Large Employers

IRS
Department of the Treasury
Internal Revenue Service
www.irs.gov
Publication 3972 (2-2002)
Catalog Number 33544Z

CONTACTS

partner@irs.gov

IMPORTANT LINKS

http:// www.irs.gov

http://

http://

http://

http://

http://

http://

http://

http://

http://

PLEASE RESPOND

name of organization

address

contact person

telephone number

e-mail address

best time to contact you:

my organization reaches:

- ☐ lower income
- ☐ disabled
- ☐ elderly
- ☐ limited English

mail this form to the following address:

IRS
Mail Stop 44, W&I
401 West Peachtree Street NW
Atlanta, GA 30308