Form 990 (2021)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Saving Jewish Lives: Relief and social welfare programs provide human services and support to Jews in need in countries around the world. Services are provided to those individuals that meet criteria relevant to the local environment, such as poverty and income levels, the existence or lack of available social services within a country, and consideration for physical mobility, disabilities, and unique circumstances. Programs include: Food and nutritional support Development of social services Homecare Medical services, equipment, and medicines (cont. on Sched. O) Emergency grants In 2021, JDC provided over 78,000 elder Jews in need in the former Soviet Union (FSU) with much needed relief and welfare services. The ongoing COVID-19 pandemic had lasting effects on all our operations in the FSU, and in particular on our elderly clients, who are also the most vulnerable population in this global crisis. Since the services we provide to elderly Jews in the FSU primarily homecare, food, and medicine are the most basic and essential type of aid, they have literally constituted a lifeline for vulnerable elderly in these times. In order to maintain that lifeline as best as possible, we have been constantly adapting our service provision according to the changing restrictions and lockdown measures on the ground. Through use of various initiatives private transportation, attaining "essential worker" permits, providing food and medicine aid more through packages and food cards, and creating and deploying a tech-based remote care service where elderly were supplied with smartphones to monitor needs, battle loneliness, and provide emergency support in real time we have been able to maintain services at almost the same scope as before, despite the severe and dynamic challenges. Overall, in 2021 we managed to maintain core services (i.e., homecare, food, and medicine) at approximately the same level as before due to major operational efforts on all levels, and the expansion of certain elements (mainly food and medicine). We provided over 25,000 needy elderly in the former Soviet Union with homecare; over 21,000 receive medicine and medical services; over 71,000 seniors received food assistance. As needs on the ground for material support grew, we were able to provide supplemental emergency aid, which included additional food and medicine aid for elderly and families at risk, and purchasing protective gear for homecare workers to be able to continue their work. This work continued to be supplemented with help from an expanding cohort of multigenerational Jewish community volunteers trained and deployed by JDC. From the onset of the pandemic, JDC-Europe, Africa & Asia's crisis team reached out to Jewish community partners to assess their needs and provide guidance and training on how to manage the emergency effectively and support their members. For families facing new economic hardships, the COVID Humanitarian Relief Fund was deployed and continued in 2021 to provide emergency assistance to purchase food and medicine and help prevent them from falling into poverty. In 2021 the Fund has provided monthly assistance to 18 Jewish communities in Europe, as well as Jewish communities in Argentina, Tunisia, and Morocco, reaching more than 1,400 households (or 3,700 individuals). In 2021, "Saving Jewish Lives" program costs (as well as overall program service expenses) decreased because of a transition to direct management of Holocaust survivor care by local Jewish communities in Europe, a welcome step towards their self-sufficiency. For decades, JDC created social service infrastructure and training for these Jewish communities, working with local leaders, professionals, and the Claims Conference to provide aid to Holocaust survivors. As these communities have evolved toward financial and professional independence, JDC phased out from this work and local communities have taken over the leadership of these local programs and initiatives, including administering Claims Conference grants funding services for aging Holocaust survivors.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Innovative social services in Israel: JDC assists vulnerable Jews throughout the world. This mission is crucial in Israel, where a remarkable economic boom has not reached everyone. JDC provides aid to Israel's most vulnerable citizens, including unemployed Israelis, children at risk, elderly and Israelis with disabilities. JDC uses a unique model, which maximizes our impact. We promote innovation, running pilot programs to develop and test more promising ways to deliver social services. If a new idea succeeds, the Israeli government takes over the program and implements it throughout the nation. We use the acronym "DNA" to describe this (cont. on Sched. O) approach, since our involvement with a pilot has three stages: 1) design (i.e., coming up with a new idea); 2) nurture (i.e., testing the new program); and 3) accelerate (i.e., if it works, scaling it up and handing it off to be replicated). In 2021, JDC directly impacted over 200,000 Israelis, and over 1,000,000 Israelis benefit from programs originally developed by JDC that have been taken to scale and are now operated by other organizations. In addition, in response to unique needs generated by the COVID-19 crisis, JDC provided targeted assistance including humanitarian aid and services to vulnerable older adults, people with disabilities and families-at-risk in quarantine; distribution of vital health information to isolated citizens; and training for professionals and volunteers on how to work and provide care remotely. JDC's COVID-specific programs helped over 100,000 people across Israel.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Building Jewish life: JDC strengthens Jewish communities in three ways. First, we help build Jewish identity and engagement among Jews with a variety of levels of Jewish affiliation through inclusive, pluralistic programs focused on Jewish culture and traditions. Second, we nurture institutions and train leaders, so communities are efficient, transparent, representative, and (eventually) self-reliant. Third, we urge communities to care for their most vulnerable members. As a result, there are synergies between our community development and care missions: Individuals are more likely to receive care and JDC has less need to provide it if vibrant local communities take on this responsibility. Programs focus on capacity-building through efforts to support the creation and maintenance of Jewish (cont. on Sched. O) communities, to strengthen communities by building communal participation, and to improve community life. Programs include: Leadership Initiatives & Training Developing Volunteerism Camping and Retreats Informal Jewish Education (clubs and other activities) Jewish Tradition/Religion/Holiday Celebrations Jewish Community Centers Formal Jewish Education (schools) Educational Activities & Materials (publications, curricula, e-learning, web-resources, libraries, etc.) COVID conditions created both a challenge in the necessity to suspend in-person activities, as well as an opportunity to increase the use of online platforms and innovate in this space. We created a wide range of continually updated online content, and successfully led the annual cross-regional conference online via Zoom. Online tools built connections between different communities, as large online communal events brought together participants of different ages from across global communities. Furthermore, they enabled us to increase our reach to new participants who did not previously attend our activities.

Part X, Line 2:	FIN 48 (ASC 740) Footnote: JDC is exempt from federal income tax under IRC section 501(c)(3), though it is subject to tax on income unrelated to its exempt purpose, unless that income is otherwise excluded by the Code. JDC is, likewise, exempt from income tax under comparable state statutes. JDC does derive revenue from an unrelated trade or business through its partnership investments; accordingly, it had a federal and state income tax refund of $31,147, which has been netted against investment income, for December 31, 2021. JDC follows guidance that clarifies the accounting for uncertainty in tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return, including issues relating to financial statement recognition and measurement. This guidance provides that the tax effects from an uncertain tax position can only be recognized in the financial statements if the position is more-likely-than-not to be sustained if the position were to be challenged by a taxing authority. The assessment of the tax position is based solely on the technical merits of the position, without regard to the likelihood that the tax position may be challenged. JDC has processes presently in place to ensure the maintenance of its tax-exempt status; to identify and report unrelated income; to determine its filing and tax obligations in jurisdictions for which it has nexus; and to identify and evaluate other matters that may be considered tax positions. JDC has determined that there are no material uncertain tax positions that require recognition or disclosure in the financial statements for December 31, 2021.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part III, line 1, Mission statement, continued:	to serving the needs of Jews throughout the world, particularly where their lives as Jews are threatened or made more difficult, through the following mission: Rescue whenever and wherever a Jewish community is threatened: in the early 1990s, JDC helped sustain and rescue 15,000 Ethiopian Jews. Today, JDC maintains global networks and contingency plans in the event of a crisis. Relief for Jewish communities in distress: JDC, through an infrastructure of local independent affiliates throughout the region, provides support that results in the provision of food, clothing, and medicine to hundreds of thousands of impoverished elderly Holocaust survivors and children in need in the former Soviet Union ("FSU") and throughout the world. Renewal and discovery of Jewish heritage and Jewish community life: since the fall of communist regimes in Europe, JDC helps Jewish communities rediscover their heritage and rebuild a vibrant Jewish communal life. Partnership with Israel as it addresses the social service needs of its most vulnerable communities: children at risk, struggling immigrant populations, the elderly, and the disabled. Global response innovative development (GRID): Non-sectarian aid in response to natural and manmade disasters and long-term development assistance provided to non-Jews to fulfill the Jewish tenet of tikkun olam, the moral responsibility to repair the world and alleviate suffering wherever it exists. Operating Principles - JDC adheres to the following three operating principles: 1 - JDC is non-partisan and apolitical. 2 - JDC seeks to empower local communities by creating model programs and training local leadership to manage the programs. During a project's formative stage, JDC handles the administrative responsibilities and evaluates the project for effectiveness. 3 - JDC builds coalitions with strategic partners who, ultimately, will assume responsibilities for the programs. Often referred to as "The Joint," JDC has worked in over 85 countries over the course of its history and has played a role at virtually every major juncture of Jewish history since its founding.
