Form 990 (2016)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

The organization helped High School student athletes achieve their goals of college, both athletically and academically. Young men from around the Puget Sound Region come together for the summer months in order to continue learning the skills needed to succeed at baseball, and in life. In order to maximize the exposure and give each player every opportunity to move on, the organization uses various types of media, travels extensively both in and out of state, and schedules the top opponents available.
