SCHEDULE D, PART V, LINE 4	The board of trustees has determined that when AJWS receiveS a contribution and the donor restricts AJWS from spending the principal, New York law requireS AJWS to maintain the original historical dollar value of the contribution received as an endowment. The amount is recorded as permanently restricted and income from interest and dividends is recorded as unrestricted or temporarily restricted, depending on the donors specification. AJWS has adopted investment and spending policies for endowment assets that attempt to provide a predictable stream of funding to programs supported by its endowment while seeking to maintain the purchasing power of the endowment assets. In the year ending April 30, 2016, AJWS transferred $2,167,237 from its Board Designated endowment fund to its Reserve Fund, this accounts for the dramatic decrease in endowment assets reported in Part V in column(c).

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
SCHEDULE D, PART X, LINE 2	FIN 48 FOOTNOTE AJWS follows guidance that clarifies the accounting for uncertainty in tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return, including issues relating to financial statement recognition and measurement. This guidance provides that the tax effects from an uncertain tax position can only be recognized in the consolidated financial statements if the position is "more-likely-than-not" to be sustained if the position were to be challenged by a taxing authority. The assessment of the tax position is based solely on the technical merits of the position, without regard to the likelihood that the tax position may be challenged. AJWS is exempt from federal income tax under IRC section 501(c)(3), though it is subject to tax on income unrelated to its exempt purpose, unless that income is otherwise excluded by the Code. AJWS has processes presently in place to ensure the maintenance of its tax-exempt status, to identify and report unrelated business income, to determine its filing and tax obligations in jurisdictions for which it has nexus, and to identify and evaluate other matters that may be considered tax positions. MANAGEMENT has determined that there are no material uncertain tax positions that require recognition or disclosure in the financial statements. In addition, AJWS has not recorded a provision for income taxes as it has no material tax liability from unrelated business income activities.

Return Reference	Explanation
SCHEDULE F, PART I, LINE 2	Prior to selecting a prospective grantee, AJWS staff and consultants do a contextual analysis of the country and decide where the funding gap exists. Staff members and consultants conduct site visits to assess the landscape and to begin selecting potential grantees. During these site visits, other funders as well as partners are consulted, and a shortlist of grantees is created. Grantees are selected based on a number of factors, such as the organizations alignment with AJWSs strategies, its effectiveness and the quality of its programs and strategy, the organizations financial management, the presence of strong and inclusive leadership, work that is driven by the priorities of the affected community, the local reputation of the organization (credibility), its connections with other civil society organizations, the depth of the organizations analysis, and the organizations use of cutting edge strategies and approaches. All grantees are screened by AJWS staff to ensure compliance with U S treasury department guidelines. In countries where site visits are not possible due to security issues AJWS staff contacts other funders that work with the grantee organization and checks references. Once a grant has been approved by AJWSs board committee, AJWS staff drafts a grant agreement that reflects the grantee'S proposal. It outlines the project activities and the reporting requirements. Once the grantee signs and returns the agreement to AJWS, the first half of the total grant amount is processed. Program officers and consultants track the progress of the project throughout the grant period. Six months into the grant, provided there are no major concerns, the grantee receives the remainder of its funds. A detailed narrative and financial report that is in accordance with the commitments agreed upon in the grant agreement is required one month after the project end date. For donor-advised fund grants, expenditure responsibility and equivalency determination requirements are followed per the IRS. Once a grant has been approved by AJWSS board committee, AJWS staff draft a grant agreement that includes the project and reporting requirements. After the grantee reviews and signs the agreement, the first payment is processed. Subsequent payments for multi-year grants are contingent upon the receipt of a satisfactory report on the preceding year of grant activities and adequate funding. All donor-advised fund grantees must submit a financial and narrative report at the end of every grant period. AJWS staff review these reports against the original proposal and upon approval, process any further payments if applicable.
