Explanation: Living United for Change in Arizona takes filing very seriously, and our missing the deadline was due to staffing changes that happened throughout 2019. As an organization that is young and still establishing clear roles for our administration department, we did not succeed in piecing together the written portion of our 990. While our bookkeeping and accounting has been up to date and accurate, we did not set a time line for the writing portion. This is a mistake on our part, but in many ways, was out of our control. Living United for Change in Arizona had recently acquired our c4 status in 2018 and will ensure that we remain on time moving forward. We ask that you consider not applying a penalty for this years tardiness. As an organization, we will make it a top priority that our organization submits our tax returns in a timely manner going forward.
