| Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c | The conflict of interest policy requires that all board members, officers, other volunteers and employees must fully disclose all areas of interest where potential conflict(s) may exist and that this disclosure should take place prior to any transactions being consummated. Transactions with parties with whom a conflicting interest does exist, may be undertaken only if all of the following are observed: 1. The person with the conflict of interest is excluded from the discussion and approval of such transaction, 2. A competitive bid or comparable valuation exists, and 3. The Board, Executive Director/COO, or Vice President of Finance has determined that the transaction is in the best interest of the organization. To help ensure compliance with this policy, all board members and all employees are required to complete a conflict of interest disclosure statement, which are reviewed by the Executive Director/COO or Vice President of Finance for indication of any potential conflicts of interest. If any material conflicts of interest are determined to exist, they are dealt with on a case by case basis and are brought to the Board of Director's attention, as appropriate. |
