Explanation: An extension was granted in a letter received from the IRS. Notice #CP211A dated 6/26/2023. In addition, we have been attempting to file this form since early-August. However, the IRS database was not properly updated to reflect the opinion letter stating that the ministry is a public charity. Consequently, the 990 online submission system rejected the filing inappropriately. In light of the above, we ask the agency to waive any late filing penalties which might be related to delays out of our control.
