Name: Lake Street Council

Form 990 (2022)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Community Engagement: Lake Street Council ("LSC") supports the Lake Street community in Minneapolis to ensure the vitality and prosperity of the commercial corridor and its 16 surrounding neighborhoods. We engage entrepreneurs, employees, residents, and institutional stakeholders in programs that promote equitable and accessible economic development. As the main business association for Lake Street, we regularly hear from business and property owners throughout the corridor about the concerns that matter to them, and our priorities shift to reflect the needs of the moment. We also work to ensure that the full diversity of voices on Lake Street are heard by decision makers. We seek out and nurture leaders in our business community, especially those who are immigrants and/or people of color, who can share their individual perspective and reflect parts of the community that may not otherwise be heard. Our core programs include community engagement through small business advising, visitor attraction, placemaking initiatives, and financial relief for small businesses and nonprofits impacted by the covid-19 pandemic and widespread social unrest.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Technical assistance and small business support: The Lake Street Council provides small business advising in English, Spanish, and Somali. A focus in 2022 was in helping minority business owners learn about and understand how to apply for financing and grants to sustain and expand their businesses. LSC also provided small grants to business owners to make improvements to their properties, including building security improvements.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

We Love Lake Street (WLLA) Recovery Fund: In late May 2020, civil unrest erupted in the Lake Street corridor as the community reacted to the murder of George Floyd. More than 400 businesses were looted, damaged, or destroyed by fire in the aftermath. The events that unfolded during those weeks have had a deep and lasting impact on Lake Street. The broader community came together to support these impacted businesses, and the WLLS recovery fund raised more than $12 million dollars in a matter of weeks. Lake Street businesses experienced hundreds of millions of dollars in collective damage as a result of the civil unrest. Many of the impacted businesses are owned by low-income entrepreneurs; black, indigenous, and people of color (BIPOC) families; immigrant business owners; and others who have overcome tremendous difficulties to support their families and communities. LSC's mission is to help these business owners and members of our community rebuild and reopen. The purpose of the WLLS recovery fund is to support the recovery of businesses and nonprofit organizations in the Lake Street corridor. To facilitate the distribution of funds, we created the WLLS recovery fund oversight committee (the "oversight committee"), which includes local leaders with a history of supporting Lake Street's diverse business community. The oversight committee was charged with determining funding allocations; made decisions about funding priorities and guidelines; and handled the application and review processes for business grants. The oversight committee and its subcommittees decided who received funding and in what amount. In 2022 WLLS funds were invested in grants and forgivable loans to displaced businesses that were seeking to reopen, to immigrant entrepreneurs who owned demolished properties who were seeking predevelopment support to start the process of rebuilding, and to community nonprofits that sought to redevelop demolished property to provide affordable commercial space for local small businesses.
