Form 990, Part III, 4a, Legal Service Support:	The Foundation collaborates with justice partners throughout the state, like the Supreme Court of Ohio, the Ohio Judicial Conference, and the Ohio State Bar Association, to make Ohio a more thriving, just, and equitable community. The Foundation is the largest funder of civil legal aid in Ohio. Civil legal aid provides skilled lawyers to help low-income and underserved Ohioans address life-changing civil legal matters that impact their ability to live safe, stable, and financially secure lives. The Foundation provides grants to ensure that: veterans can secure the benefits they earned through their service; seniors can preserve their independence and financial security; survivors of domestic violence can obtain safety and security; families dealing with the opioid crisis can achieve stability; and children can obtain the supports they need to succeed in school. Last year, in addition to annual core funding, the Foundation also disbursed almost $7 million in revenue replacement grants to restore legal aid grant funding lost as a direct result of the pandemic. The Foundation also furthers its mission to improve access to justice by developing new and innovative services to help Ohioans facing legal challenges access trustworthy legal information and referrals. In response to Ohio welcoming almost 2,000 Afghan evacuees, the Foundation provided over $1 million in funding for Afghan civil legal services to help the evacuees stabilize themselves and their families in Ohio. The Foundation also funds grants directed specifically at helping Ohio veterans ensure that they are able to live safe and stable lives. In addition to facilitating veterans access to federal benefits earned through their service to the country, Foundation funding also supports discharge upgrades, housing stabilization legal services, and addresses the myriad other legal issues that can make it difficult for veterans to thrive in civilian life. The Foundation also provides grant funding for civil legal services to help Ohioans and their families struggling with substance abuse disorders. In order to regain stability lost as a result of a substance abuse disorder, Ohioans often require legal assistance addressing debt, housing, record sealing and family matters. The Foundation created, launched, and now funds the nonprofit Ohio Legal Help, a state-of-the-art web portal that gives all Ohioans meaningful access to reliable legal information. Ohio Legal Help is available twenty-four hours a day and in all eighty-eight counties. During the last fiscal year, Ohio Legal Help served almost 700,000 Ohioans across Ohio. Additionally, the Foundation funds innovative legal services to catalyze community redevelopment in targeted communities around Ohio through Neighborhood Stabilization Grants. Since 2017, the Foundation has disbursed over $11.3 million to support transactional civil legal work to empower Ohioans and their local community groups to revitalize their neighborhoods through such effort.

Form 990, Part III, 4a, Legal Service Support:	ports as the development of new businesses, the implementation of solar power, and the restoration and creation of affordable housing. Through a generous Victim of Crime Assistance grant from the Ohio Attorney General's Office, the Foundation also awarded over $170,000 to fund critical legal work to serve older Ohioans at risk of financial abuse and exploitation. Thanks to this crucial funding, thousands of Ohio seniors receive timely legal advice and counsel through a statewide senior legal hotline. Further, the Foundation supports outstanding law graduates with a passion for public service through two-year fellowships to address emergent legal needs. These young lawyers serve as Justice for All Fellows at civil legal service organizations throughout Ohio. Fellows focus their work on legal issues which adversely impact low-income and underserved Ohioans. Current Justice For All Fellows work on matters such as: supporting children of color in school to increase educational success and reduce referrals to juvenile court; increasing generational wealth and homeownership for Black Ohioans; helping asylum seekers achieve permanency and security; and, supporting senior Ohioans who were the victims of elder abuse. The Foundation also funds a Justice for All Summer Clerkship program to support law students of color interested in working in civil legal services. The program provides funding to host organizations to cover the salary of summer law students from Ohio law schools. Through this program law students of color can gain valuable legal experience while addressing the critical legal needs of low-income and underserved Ohioans. In addition to funding fellows to work on emergent civil legal needs, the Foundation expands access to justice in Ohio by promoting the recruitment and retention of civil legal aid attorneys with superior skills and qualifications through its Loan Repayment Assistance Program (LRAP). The Foundation's LRAP provides up to $6,000 in annual educational loan repayment assistance to attorneys employed by qualifying Ohio legal service organizations. In FY 2022 (July 1, 2021, to June 30, 2022), the Foundation provided 25 participants over $110,000 in loan repayment assistance for private educational loans not subject to the federal forbearance provisions. LRAP is a vital tool in recruiting and retaining the best and brightest attorneys, who otherwise, due to student loan debt, could not afford to work for a civil legal aid society. Thanks to the generous support of the Supreme Court of Ohio, the Foundation is able to provide program improvement and development grants. Through this funding, the Foundation has supported Ohio Legal Help's expansion and maintenance as well as funding intranets and professional document management systems for each of Ohio's legal aid societies. Through such technology improvements, Ohio's legal services providers are better able to increase work efficiencies and thereby maximize their capacity to provide

The Foundation also administers other grant funding to support Ohio's civil legal aid societies and improve access to justice. As noted above, the Foundation ensures that the grant funds help low-income and underserved Ohioans overcome legal challenges so they can live safe, stable, and financially secure lives. Through its grant administration, the Foundation captures measurable data to improve and expand both legal services and other efforts to diminish the justice gap. In FY 2022, the Foundation successfully oversaw the distribution of more than $10.8 million from Interest on Lawyer's Trust Accounts (IOLTA), Interest on Trust Accounts (IOTA), and filing fee revenue. As a result of the Foundation's funding, Ohio's legal aids provided legal information, advice, or representation in over 60,000 civil matters and assisted over 133,000 Ohioans, including nearly 4,000 veterans and 18,000 seniors. Finally, the Foundation educates both state and national legislators, as well as the public about the importance of civil legal aid and the transformative impact that civil legal services has on people's lives. To that end, the Foundation is honored to partner with Ohio's courts, bar associations, businesses, governmental agencies, social service agencies, and others to increase the awareness of and build support for civil legal aid and increased access to justice in Ohio.

Form 990, Part III, 4c, Pro Bono and Ohio Justice Bus:	The Foundation also responds to emergent circumstances as it did last year, when the Foundation worked with the Ohio Department of Job and Family Services and the Ohio State Bar Association to train over 400 lawyers on Afghan legal issues in order to respond to the arrival of almost 2,000 Afghan evacuees in Ohio. Through a generous grant from the Supreme Court of Ohio, the Foundation works at the statewide level to increase pro bono participation in delivering civil legal services to low-income and underserved Ohioans. The Foundation is a catalyst for the development of new, statewide, and local pro bono initiatives. The Foundation also works to increase the pro bono capacity of existing pro bono programs around the state by publicly promoting and recognizing pro bono efforts to encourage and grow pro bono involvement. One of the Foundation's most successful efforts, recognized by the American Bar Association's Solo, Small Firm and GP Division as a national "difference maker" in pro bono is the Ohio Justice Bus ("the Bus"). The Bus has a statewide footprint. With 50 committed, volunteer lawyers, the Bus is on the road for roughly three days a week. It has recurring monthly clinics in Adams, Clermont, and Delaware counties and can be found at clinics in other counties addressing legal questions ranging from kinship care to record sealing to advance directors. As part of its efforts to lift up pro bono volunteers, the Foundation annually presents the Presidential Award to recognize an individual or an organization's outstanding efforts to improve access to justice in Ohio. The 2022 recipient was Judge Andrew Logan from the Trumbull County Court of Common Pleas. Judge Logan spearheaded a collaboration between the Trumbull County Court and Community Legal Aid to create the Clarence Darrow Clinic, a judicially led pro bono clinic that responds to referrals in consumer and housing matters from all courts in the county. Thanks to a generous grant from the United States District Court for the Southern District of Ohio, the Foundation awards pro bono support grants to programs in the Southern District that help low-income and underserved Ohioans navigate the justice system successfully. The clinics operate to provide general pro bono legal services in remote rural counties and increase larger capacity in more populous counties.
