Part III, Line 4	The Newberry College Archives-in the process of transforming a part-time effort into a formal records repository, research library, and outreach effort benefitting internal and external stakeholders-documents the history of the college, appraising, collecting, organizing, describing, and preserving records and other items of permanent institutional value, provides research assistance to administrators, faculty, staff, students, alumni, and the public, and interprets the history of Newberry College to the college community and the public. Preserving and interpreting the college's 160-year record of preparing students in the Lutheran liberal arts tradition for intellectual and personal development, meaningful vocation, and engaged citizenship makes a significant contribution to the institution's mission and helps shape its identity. Newberry College's Special Collections represent approximately 3,500 rare and unique print items donated to the library since its inception. The items represent historic assets as well as materials preserved by the library because of their scarcity, value or fragile condition. Like the archives, Newberry College's Special Collections represent the activities undertaken by the College throughout its history.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 1	The Executive Committee shall have six (6) members, all of whom shall be voting Trustees, except for the President who shall be ex officio without vote and not counted as part of a quorum for the purpose of transacting business. The Chair, Vice Chair, Secretary and Treasurer of the Board of Trustees shall be members. The purpose of the Executive Committee is twofold: 1) It shall serve at the pleasure of the Board as its agent, to address the business of the Board between Board meetings, and 2) It shall assist the Chair and the President in their joint responsibility to help the Board to function effectively and efficiently by suggesting Board meeting agenda items and periodically assessing the quality of Board Committees work. The Executive Committee shall have authority to act for the Board of Trustees on all matters except for the following which shall be reserved for the Board: presidential selection and termination, Trustee and Board officer selection, changes in institutional mission and purposes, changes to the Charter, Constitution or these Bylaws, incurring of corporate indebtedness, sale of College assets or tangible property, adoption of the annual budget, and conferral of degrees. These Bylaws or other Board policy may reserve other powers for the Board of Trustees. In addition to its authority to take action on emergency matters which cannot or should not be deferred to the Board's next scheduled meeting, the Executive Committee shall oversee the work of Board Committees, the College's planning process or progress on planning goals, the Board's responsibility to support the President and assess his or her performance, and review annually the President's compensation and conditions of employment.
