Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission

The International Order of the Rainbow for Girls (IORG) is a youth organization for girls between the ages of 11 and 20. IORG creates programs designed to build self-confidence and develop character in these young girls. It promotes programs that are educational, and recreational in nature for the purpose of instilling communication and leadership skills. It also encourages team work and cooperation between people regardless of race, color, creed, or gender. Supreme Assembly is the umbrella organization for all of the various Grand Assembly and Local Assembly jurisdictions in the US and elsewhere. It provides centralized administration of all of these various assemblies and maintains an inventory of supplies needed by them. It arranges a bi-annual meeting where members worldwide may come together to discuss business and exchange ideas.
