Part I, Line 2:	The University awards scholarships to individual students based upon financial need, scholastic ability, and other criteria. Monitoring of each student's enrollment status and GPA occurs throughout the award period to ensure grant criteria are met. No cash changes hands, and funds are directly applied to student accounts. OBU used a hybrid method to award the emergency financial aid funds. An application was provided to all students for them to report emergency costs associated with the campus closure due to Covid-19 in the spring semester. OBU also used the group method to target specific groups of students with similar expenses.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 1a	The President's wife accompanies the President on various University events for which travel is required. These travel arrangements are paid by the University and are treated as taxable income included on the President's W-2. As an ordained minister of the Gospel, the President receives an annual ministers housing allowance that is appropriately treated as a non-taxable benefit and is included in 990 Part VII, Column (F) and in Schedule J Part II, Column (D).
Part I, Line 3	The University participates in annual salary studies of various higher education associations and uses the studies to review appropriateness of officer and key employees salaries. The President has an annual review by the Board of Trustees that includes a performance review and comparison to average salaries and benefits of like institutions. The deliberations and decisions regarding executive compensation are documented in the board minutes.
Part I, Line 4a	Former President David Whitlock received a severance payment in 2019 totaling $123,981.
