Paid Approved	Colorado Latino Leadership and Research Organization Inc	P.O. Box 17932, CO 80217	None	PC	75,000	Although our initial advocacy portfolio was remarkably diverse, and although 50% of the organizations are led by leadership who identify as Latino, we only had one organization that was explicitly focused on organizing within the Latino community. CLLARO is exclusively focused on the Latino community across the state, with a strong base of support in the Far Northeast of Denver and Aurora, and their organizing and policy work spans our outcome areas of Youth Success and Family Economic mobility. We are recommending a relatively low investment-to-budget ratio. CLLARO has been rebuilding under new leadership; their new Executive Director has greatly improved their operations and credibility, and they have already significantly diversified their funding base.

Paid Approved	Great Education Colorado Fund	1355 S. Colorado Blvd. Building C, Suite 500, CO 80222	None	PC	Although our initial advocacy portfolio had strong representation in communities of color across Denver and Arapahoe counties, we were underweight in suburban parts of Adams, Arapahoe, and Jefferson counties that are especially important in statewide elections. GEC has a statewide network of ~3,000 volunteers, they are especially strong in swing suburban counties, and they have proven their efficacy at voter contact in the Proposition EE and Amendment B campaigns in the last election cycle. In addition to their on-the-ground advocacy efforts, GEC is also a key player in discussions about the '22/'24 ballot cycles. (They have a particular interest in winning additional revenue for K-12 education.) We consider GEC to be a crucial partner in our Youth Success outcome areas, and we are recommending a relatively small investment-to-budget ratio, as GEC is an established organization with a diversified funding base.	75,000
