The university did not utilize chartered flights for air travel. Extensive travel is required of the position of president and they are encouraged by the Board of Trustees to travel business or first class on flights of two hours or more. This provision is made for several reasons: 1) business or first-class travel allows for the most flexibility to accommodate a travel schedule that must frequently be altered, often at the last minute to accommodate donors' schedules, add critical meetings, or to take advantage of other strategic opportunities for the university; 2) circumstances sometimes call for the president to return to campus without notice, or to remain on campus when a trip was planned, and first or business-class travel best accommodates these changing conditions; and 3) the Board of Trustees wishes the president to be at their best performance representing and seeking funding for the university during often grueling travel itineraries for meetings frequently critical to the institution's well-being. This accommodation was not treated as taxable compensation. HOUSING ALLOWANCE OR RESIDENCE FOR PERSONAL USE The president is required to live on campus in the university-owned president's residence where they regularly hold university events. Because the president accepts this requirement as a condition of employment, the residence is on university premises, and it is provided for the convenience of the university, under IRS rules it is not considered a taxable benefit to the president. As required by IRS Form 990, the value of the portion of the residence used by the president for personal living quarters has been estimated and is included in the amounts reported on Form 990, Schedule J, Part II, Column (D). HEALTH CLUB MEMBERSHIP The president's health club membership is paid by the university and reported as taxable compensation.
Schedule J, Part I, Line 4	Line 4b Persons who participated in a supplemental nonqualified retirement plan, including a reasonable estimate of their potential share of the increase in the actuarial value of the faculty early retirement and career change plan and the post-retirement medical benefits plan: Sherry B Mondou ($24,000), David R Beers ($30,000). Sherry B Mondou received payment from a vested supplemental non-qualified retirement plan ($26,011), as did David R Beers ($25,089).
Schedule J, Part II	Column (B) (iii) Other reportable compensation includes taxable optional life insurance, compensation in lieu of sabbatical, vested 457 (b) deferred compensation, vested 457(f) deferred compensation accumulation, faculty early retirement and career change plan distributions, as applicable to each individual. Column (C) Retirement and other deferred compensation includes 403(b) retirement contributions, unvested 457(f) deferred compensation, and the attributed increase in the actuarial value of the faculty early retirement and career change plan and post-retirement medical benefits plan, as applicable to each individual. Column (D) Nontaxable benefits include employer and employee pre-tax contributions to medical including faculty post-retirement medical, dental, disability, and life insurance benefits, dependent tuition benefits, and employer provided housing, as applicable for each individual. Steven Neshyba dependent tuition benefits ($47,840), and Peter Wimberger dependent tuition benefits ($6,309) are both from the university's tuition benefit program.
