Form 990, Part III Line 4a Program Service Accomplishment - Continued	Harm Reduction, Motivational Interviewing, Stages of Change and Mindfulness Meditation are utilized in individual and group drug counseling, case management, psychiatric services, and mental health therapy, combined with comprehensive health and other ancillary services providing a unique and dynamic treatment program for homeless substance users, particularly those with co-occurring disorders. By working on a day-to-day, person-to-person level with our clients and having an actual door for them to walk through, we are able to offer a more comprehensive and action-oriented set of health services that improves their quality of life. This Eastern philosophical meets Western philosophical transforms hundreds of lives and improves the overall health and well-being of the community. The Housing Program links people experiencing homelessness directly to permanent supportive housing with intensive case management to ensure that they are finding homes and stabilizing their physical and mental health. Over 100 people were moved into permanent supportive housing with a 98% retention rate. The program utilizes case managers, clinical social workers housing navigators, and therapists who coordinate all housing, social and behavioral health services. All of the programs have resulted in significant cost avoidance/savings in public program utilization, such as reduction in inpatient readmissions to hospitals, reduction in emergency room visits, fewer incarcerations, and reductions in other health and mental health emergency services. In the current economic and health care environment, these kinds of costs savings are critical. Total program expenses were $4,667,063.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part III, Line 1 Program Service Accomplishment - Continued	Homeless Health Care Los Angeles (HHCLA) is a nonprofit, community-based harm reduction organization that provides comprehensive holistic healthcare services to address the unique challenges of people experiencing homelessness. HHCLA has been providing a pathway to health, recovery and emotional well-being without bias or judgment for more than 35 years. HHCLA's primary mission is to provide innovative strategies for reducing the harms associated with homelessness, substance use, and mental and physical health conditions. A continuum of harm reduction services is offered including outreach, hygiene access, mental health and psychiatric services, health care, substance use treatment, syringe exchange, overdose prevention including naloxone distribution, training/education, and housing with supportive services. HHCLA seeks to improve clients quality of life and capacity for stability, and helps them secure and retain permanent supportive housing. By taking a non-judgmental and respectful approach, HHCLA dignifies those seeking services by acknowledging them as competent individuals worthy of respect and capable of identifying their own needs and priorities. HHCLA operates scattered site housing utilizing section 8 tenant-based housing vouchers with onsite support services, an outpatient physical and mental health facility, an Intensive Case Management Services (ICMS) site, the Center for Harm Reduction (syringe exchange, outreach, overdose prevention and supplies, medical services), and the ReFresh Spot (hygiene center). Additionally, HHCLA provides co-located behavioral health, case management and supportive services in a variety of sites including City of Los Angeles Central Jail, LA County Twin Towers Jail, DPSS offices, City and County Superior Courts, permanent supportive housing sites, and Project Roomkey hotels. HHCLA outreach teams provide services on the streets, in encampments, under freeway passes, along riverbeds, in the hills of Elysian Park and throughout the Skid Row, Silverlake, Echo Park, and Westlake districts. Annually, HHCLA provides services to more than 40,000 individuals with 200,000+ service encounters and offers life-saving overdose prevention services including naloxone distribution for opiate overdose reversals. Lastly, HHCLA has more than 35 years of experience coordinating and facilitating professional trainings for homeless shelters, community health clinics, hospitals, the Department of Health Services, The Los Angeles Homeless Services Authority, The Department of Probation, and a vast network of public and private community-based providers. HHCLA is recognized as an accomplished leader in providing innovative staff trainings that promote professional development and provide technical assistance to improve the provision of services within the homeless services sector through enhancing entry level, direct service, and supervisory staffs knowledge and skills. HHCLA has a COVID-19 contingency plan, which will remain in place
